Anyone who is registered and logged in is a user. What should I share? Please share the pictures that will help other visitors. For example: Pictures that highlight the article features (Here are the controls of the music player, See the buckle of the necklace, Look at the box it came in) Pictures showing someone using a product (I'm wearing this scarf, Install the ink cartridge here) Pictures topic (My Dog Skipper, The Great Equipment, Our Family at Yellowstone, How to Glue a Chair to a One handcluffs) Pictures that show that the product performs (I took this picture with this camera, This shirt shrunk to washing, the saw blade after 100 pieces) Pictures that give a sense of the size of the product (This refrigerator is actually 6 tall, the cell phone is the size of a credit card) Do not include the inscriptions on the pictures. Although not necessary, they provide context for images. You can also use Picture Annotations to highlight one or more areas of interest in the image. Everyone will see the notes when they flip the picture. What shouldn't I share? Act like you're a guest at a friend's dinner, please treat the Prime Publishing community with respect. Don't share: Profane, obscene or malicious images, or nude images for which you don't have intellectual property rights, phone numbers, images with email addresses or URLs. You can mark the image with a watermark with copyright information. Images with availability, price or alternative order/delivery information Images showing external websites, competitors or other salutation Personal data for children under the age of 13 with outstanding and easy-to-read car registration numbers (images whose license plates have been abolished or which cannot be read otherwise) are acceptable). The same guidelines apply to captions and notes. What image formats and sizes are supported? We support JPEG, GIF and PNG images. Files can be up to 1 MB. The height and width of the image must be between 60 and 3,500 pixels. Instead of uploading a picture, can I add a link to an image? No, all images need to be uploaded to Prime Publishing. This ensures that the image is always available. How long does it take to upload a picture? The time depends on the speed of your Internet connection and the size of the image file. For example, for a 400 KB image, you must wait 2-4 minutes on a 56 KB modem or less than 1 minute for a DSL or cable modem. Where does my picture appear? Usually the image is displayed where you uploaded it: the article image gallery. Who owns the uploaded photos? The image is still owned by the image owner; uploading the image to prime publishing does not transfer ownership. close tight
